September

ROBERT LOWELL AND THE COLD WAR — Steven Gould Axelrod

INVENTING GUARDIANSHIP: THE MOHEGAN INDIANS AND THEIR "PROTECTORS" — Wendy B. St. Jean

CONSTRUCTING EDEN: THE EARLY DAYS OF PINEHURST, NORTH CAROLINA — Richard J. Moss

FIGURING BENJAMIN FRANKLIN IN AMERICAN CULTURAL MEMORY — Carla Mulford

MEMORANDA AND DOCUMENTS

Recovering "Wretched Stuff" and the Franklins' Synergy — Thomas C. Leonard

ESSAY REVIEWS

The Incidental Dickinson — Mary Loeffelholz

Edwin Land: Inventor, Maker of Instruments, and Creative Philanthropist — A. Hunter Dupree

BOOK REVIEWS

December

EDITORIAL — Linda Smith Rhoads and William M. Fowler, Jr.

WORDSWORTH IN AMERICA AND THE NATURE OF DEMOCRACY — Lance Newman

JONATHAN EDWARDS AND AMERICAN INDIANS: THE DEVIL SUCKS THEIR BLOOD — Gerald R. McDermott

TOWARD A NATIVE AMERICAN NATIONALISM: JOEL BARLOW'S THE VISION OF COLUMBUS — Danielle E. Conger

MEMORANDA AND DOCUMENTS

Essex County's Two Militias: The Social Composition of Offensive and Defensive Militias during King Philip's War, 1675–1676 — Kyle F. Zelner

Lost and Found: Emily Dickinson's Unknown Daguerreotypist — Mary Elizabeth Kromer Bernhard

ESSAY REVIEWS

America's Minstrel Daze — Philip F. Gura

Art and the Risks of Intimacy — Linda Simon

The Women of Transcendentalism and the New Biography — Joel Myerson

BOOK REVIEWS

INDEX TO VOLUME LXXII